

To my jekjek,

Hi lods, I know our relationship isn't perfect, but please know that I never regretted giving us a chance. Just like you, I also took a risk in love—and I'm so thankful that it's with you. These 12 months felt like a rollercoaster, but it was all worth it because we grew together and became stronger. I'm so excited for what the future has in store for us, as long as I have you by my side.

I'll always be your biggest believer. No matter how tired you get or how discouraged you may feel, I'll always be here. You can lean on me anytime because I'll never let you go through things alone.

Honestly, I never thought we would make it this far. Imagine how many times we almost gave up, how many times we thought of walking away—yet here we are, celebrating one year together. I know it hasn't been easy for both of us to handle each other's moods and attitudes, but still, we chose to stay. I'm sorry for the times I couldn't control my emotions, my silence, or my anger when something triggers me. I never meant to hurt you or make you feel like I'm pushing you away. I'm really trying my best, and even when I struggle to express what I feel, please know that I love you so much.

And Jek, I want you to know something very important—I have no plans of leaving you, not now, not ever. No matter what we go through, no matter how many misunderstandings or challenges we face, my heart will always choose you. Leaving you has never crossed my mind. 1 year is too short, let's make it forever. I love you so much, my 4lyfer.
